CRAIG BREEN from Waterford scored his first victory in the FIA World Rally Championship Academy, Rally Germany, at the weekend, holding off Spain's Yeray Lemes to win by 15 seconds.

This win lifts the 21-year-old to second place in the WRC Academy points table.

Meath driver Tim McNulty and his Sligo co-driver Paul Kiely landed their third International win this year when they took the lead on the closing three stages of the Antrim-based Toddsleap.com Ulster International Rally.

This win puts McNulty and Kiely ahead in the Irish Tarmac Championship.
