

RETURN: Craig Breen in Rally Sweden

BREEN SET TO RETURN TO RACING

WATERFORD rally driver Craig Breen travels to Finland today to begin his preparation for World Rally Finland which starts next Thursday.

The event will be an emotional one for Breen as it's his comeback rally on the world scene after the fatal crash on Rally Targa Florio in Sicily that claimed the life of his co-driver Gareth Roberts on June 16.

After taking time to reflect on his co-driver's passing Breen has decided to continue on the path that saw him rise up the rallying ranks to win the World Rally Championship (WRC) Academy last year and mount a strong early season challenge in this year's SWRC.

He has been helped no end by the Roberts family and he even contested a few stages at a recent rally in Wales with Gareth's brother Dai in an effort to get behind the wheel for the first time since the
