

WRC Super 2000 champion Craig Breen competed on home soil last weekend when the Irishman took part in the Rally of the Lakes in Killarney. He swapped his regular European Rally Championship Peugeot 207 S2000 for a Ford Escort Mk2 and led after the first day. His engine failed on the first stage of day two