

Mr Doyle attempted to leave and was punched by Stephen Power. He fell to the ground and Gary Power closed in and kicked him to the left eye. A person pulled up to the scene in a silver Audi and the two assault on the elderly man and there was a backlash on Mr Doyle and a second attacker. While Gary Power was not related to the man who was assaulted, he would have known him.

period of time but drink became a serious problem for him.

Mr Burke, BL., said his client would not have engaged in the incident only that he was intoxicated. He said he left school after his minimum sentence of five years, but took into consideration mitigating factors outlined by Gary Power's Barrister.

Speaking to Power, he added, "You a still a young man, hopefully you can draw a line under this."
